DESCRIPTION

The 2026 Honda CRF125F is a purpose built trail bike that offers beginner friendly power, contemporary features, and Honda's legendary reliability. It houses a 125cc air cooled, single cylinder four stroke engine with fuel injection for smoother starts, cleaner performance, and reduced maintenance. Its four speed manual transmission and full size steel frame make it a real bike, not just a beginner's toy. With a 29.1inch seat height (30.9inch on the Big Wheel version), electric start, and long travel suspension, it ships a balance of comfort and capability perfect for new riders learning the ropes or anyone wanting a light, durable offroad machine
